REIMS LA CHAMPAGNE LÉGENDE

Reims in your pocket

1 NOTRE-DAME CATHEDRAL

C3

Notre-Dame de Reims is one of Europe's most important Gothic structures. 33 royal coronations have taken place in Reims, including 25 in the present-day cathedral. This 13th century masterpiece is unique in its uniformity of style, its profusion of statues (2,303) and its stained glass windows, including some stunning contemporary works by Chagall and Knoebel.
Experience the thrill of the coronation of the kings of France with Regalia, a multimedia show displayed on the façade in high season.

Place du Cardinal Luçon

Open every day from 7.30am to 7.30pm. Closes at 7.15pm on Sundays and public holidays. Free entry. No visitors allowed during services. To visit the towers between 02-15 and 11-15: please apply to Palace of Tau.

2 SAINT-REMI BASILICA

D5

This Romanesque-Gothic abbey church is impressive because of its profundity and its sober majesty. It was built from the 11th century onwards in order to house the Holy Ampulla and the remains of Saint Remi, the bishop who baptized Clovis in 496. His tomb was reconstructed in a Renaissance style in the 19th century.
Experience the coronation night celebration with Regalia, a multimedia show displayed on the façade in high season.

Rue Saint-Julien

Open from 8am to 7pm (closes at 5pm in the low season). Free entry. No visitors allowed during services.

3 SAINT-REMI MUSEUM

D5

The museum occupies a former Benedictine abbey dating from the 17th and 18th centuries. The 17 rooms surrounding the cloister house important collections dedicated to local history, from Prehistoric times to the Renaissance, to regional military history and more.

53 rue Simon. Tel. + 33 (0)3 26 35 36 90

Open from 10am to 6pm.
Closed on Mondays and 01-01, 05-01, 11-01 and 12-25.
Last admission 30min before closing time.

4 REMARKABLE CHURCHES

C6 E4

Saint-Nicaise church, jewel of the Cité-Jardin du Chemin-Vert, is a masterpiece of the Sacred Art revival, decorated by the most eminent artists during the 1920s. The imposing Sainte-Clotilde basilica, which is Neo-Byzantine in style, has a crypt containing 444 reliquaries and 3,525 relics of French saints. Both of these remarkable buildings are an invitation to plunge into the religious heritage of Reims.

Saint-Nicaise : Avenue de la Marne

Open from 05-02 to 09-28 on Fridays, Saturdays, and Sundays from 12pm to 6pm. Entry: €3.

Sainte-Clotilde : Place Sainte-Clotilde

Open on Sundays in July and August from 3pm to 5.30pm.

5 FOUJITA CHAPEL

C1

After his conversion to Catholicism, the French-Japanese painter Leonard Foujita designed this Neo-Romanesque chapel in 1966. The iconographical programme of the stained-glass windows and of the 100 m² large fresco is inspired by Christ's life, but also partly by Japanese tradition.

33 rue du Champ-de-Mars. Tel. +33 (0)3 26 35 36 00

Open from 05-02 to 09-30 from 10am to midday and from 2pm to 6pm. Closed on Tuesdays.

Citybus STOP MUMM - FOUJITA

6 MARS GATE

B2

Built in the 3rd century, the Porte de Mars, the largest known arch from Roman times, is 32 metres long and 13 metres tall. It was the North gate to the ancient capital of Durocortorum, with its three, elaborately decorated archways featuring, among other items, an agricultural calendar and the legend of Romulus and Remus. Recently restored, it bears unique witness to the city's history.

Place de la République.

Free access.

Welcome to REIMS Coronation city...

Once the capital of the Roman province of Gallia Belgica, the city where Kings of France were crowned, a martyr in the First World War, Reims is one of the important sites in the history of France. This can be seen in its Gallo-Roman treasures, Art Deco façades and above all its impressive mediaeval monuments, theatres for the coronations of most of the kings of France, and listed as World Heritage sites by UNESCO since 1991.

8 GALLO-ROMAN CRYPTOPORTICUS

C2

Built between the 1st and 2nd centuries A.D., these three partially buried galleries located beneath the Gallo-Roman forum of Durocortorum may have once been a covered market. Only the eastern gallery is visible, and it is among the few cryptoporticus of the Roman world to have been excavated. Temporary exhibitions.

Place du Forum. Tel. +33 (0)3 26 77 77 76

Open from 2pm to 6pm on weekends and public holidays in June and September, every day in July and August (including public holidays), and on the third weekend of October. Free admission.

9 SAINT-JEAN-BAPTISTE DE LA SALLE HOTEL

C2

Built from 1545, the mansion is a remarkable example of Renaissance architecture. Jean-Baptiste de La Salle was born here in 1651. A museum tour presents his life as a promoter of education for underprivileged children, and as founder of the Institute of the Brothers of the Christian Schools. A human promotion experience now shared by thousands of Lasallian educators across the five continents.

4 bis rue de l'Arbalète. Tel. +33 (0)3 26 97 34 79

Open from Tuesday to Saturday from 2pm to 5pm (except public holidays). Group bookings can be taken for other times.

10 BOULINGRIN COVERED MARKET

C2

The Halles du Boulingrin are a model of modern architecture and structure, with the latest construction materials and techniques; an emblematic building of the period between the wars, they were meticulously restored and re-opened in 2012.

50 rue de Mars

The building hosts the city-centre market on Wednesday, Friday and Saturday mornings as well as a special market for organic products on Fridays from 4pm to 8pm.
Flea market on the 1st Sunday of the month from 10am to 4pm (except in August) and book market on the 2nd Sunday of the month from 8.30am to 6pm.

Citybus STOP BOULINGRIN

11 CARNEGIE LIBRARY

C3

Reims offers a panorama of the principal trends in architecture during the 1920s in France. The main one, Art Deco, is both geometrical and decorative. Among the iconic buildings may be cited the Carnegie Library, a jewel of Art Deco architecture, and Cours Jean-Baptiste Langlet, which provides a very varied range of styles from the interwar period.

2 place Carnegie. Tel. +33 (0)3 26 77 81 41

Open from 10am to 1pm and from 2pm to 7pm (6pm on Saturdays and every day during school holidays). Closed on Mondays, Thursday mornings (also on Friday mornings during school holidays) and on Sundays. Free entry.

... and City of Champagne!

Reims is also known the world over because its name is written on the labels of the famous names in champagne who, through their talent for producing great wine and their passion for quality, founded the reputation and prestige of the Champagne wines. The Champagne hillsides, houses and cellars were included in the UNESCO world heritage list in 2015.

These Champagne Houses and their famous brands invite you to visit their cellars where their magnificent vintages lie in the dark for many long years, before being part of celebrations all over the world, from the most outstanding to the least pretentious.
